Hi Bob,

We have noticed that there is no captain indicated in the Carmarthenshire side for match 49 v Devon in 1909. In all matches bar this and one other, the captain was Capt D Hughes Morgan. In the other it was CP Lewis.

As CP Lewis was playing in match 49, is it reasonable to assume that he was the captain?

Let me know what you think.

Thanks
Julian

Noticed mention in minutes of 1910 scores. Should I have had them? Existing Carms scorebook starts in 1910. although there is the occasional innings which appear to be copied off the other book at the end

If we have Glam scorebook suggest it is signed off by umpires and therefore right even when wrong

However I have some discrepancies

Trubshaw 6-2-9-0

Nash 18 overs 4-52 Western Mail 4-55 Ili papers

Creber 13-4-32-7

Glam all out without Trubshaw taking a wicket or a run out so there's no reason for 6.1 unless he's injured

Trubshaw i8n when Hume Roderick unable to play on day. Finished 'just after noon'
