DORSET v. SURREY.

Dorset met Surrey in the Minor Counties' Cricket Championship on the Poole Park ground on Wednesday and Thursday, and were defeated by an innings and 64 runs. Winning the toss, Surrey batted first, and gaining a mastery over the bowling, occupied the wickets until nearly five o'clock, when the innings was "declared" with the total at 340 for 7. In the time remaining for play Dorset lost 5 wickets for 73. On Thursday the innings closed for 136, and the second innings produced four more than this total. Scores:—

MINOR COUNTIES' CHAMPIONSHIP.

Dorset v. Surrey II.

These teams met in the above competition on the Poole Park ground on Wednesday and Thursday. Dorset, who did not have a full side out, lost the toss, and Surrey started on an easy wicket. They occupied the wickets until nearly five o'clock, when the skipper declared, the total of the innings being 340 runs for seven wickets. Dorset went in, and at the drawing of stumps five wickets had fallen for 73 runs. On Thursday they carried the total to 136, having to follow on, and in their second essay were dismissed for 140.
