MINOR COUNTIES CHAMPIONSHIP.

Wilts v. Bucks.

This match was commenced at Bloctchley in the grounds of Mr. H. S. Leon in ideal weather, on Wednesday. Wilts won the toss and batted first on a perfect pitch. Nicholson played in fine style for 89, giving one chance when he had scored 26. Boddy bowled effectively, taking six wickets for 35 runs. Montmorency gave the finest display of the day, scoring three 6's and eleven 4's. On Thursday, when the game was continued, Wiltshire won by nine wickets. Wiltshire have this season won every match they have played, and this is their sixth successive victory. Their remaining matches are with Surrey II. and Dorset, and they have only to win one of these to assure themselves of the championship of the Southern Division.
