YORKSHIRE II. v. CHESHIRE.

Another Sensational Dismissal of the Cestrians.

The county match between Yorkshire 2nd and Cheshire attracted over a thousand people at Bridlington. Cheshire batted first, and were dismissed under an hour for 24 runs on a run-productive wicket. Upon Yorkshire going in, Grimshaw gave an absolutely perfect display. He showed great care all through, and was not missed until 95, the first slip dropping the ball after three attempts to hold it. Grimshaw made a number of fine strokes on the leg side, hitting eleven 4's, five 3's, and nine 2's. Score:—

YORKSHIRE 2nd v. CHESHIRE.

ANOTHER DEFEAT FOR CHESHIRE.

The first county match at Bridlington opened on Wednesday in ideal cricket weather. Yorkshire second string opposed Cheshire.

The visitors included ten amateurs. There was a gate of 600. Cheshire batted first, opening disastrously, smart catches by the wicket keeper and at slip dismissing Fallows and Jones, the batsmen being quite unable to judge the pace of Foster and Richardson. All were out in fifty five minutes for 24 runs.

Rudston and Hardisty opened at 12 45 to the attack of Buckley and Buxton. The batsmen played cautiously. With the total at 12 Hardisty had his forefinger knocked up from a rising ball from Buxton. The same finger was broken last year, and kept him out of cricket for several months. At 23 Rudston was caught at the wicket. MacLaren relieved Buxton at 32, and had nine runs scored off the first over, including four to each batsman. At 41 there was another change of bowling, Bibby going on for Buckley, and with the first ball had Turner caught at slip.

Batting proceeded quietly, Grimshaw getting some fine shots to leg. The Cheshire captain rang changes on his bowling. With 80 up, both Buckley and Buxton coming on again.

Tattersall and Harrison, the not outs, resumed the Yorkshire innings at Bridlington yesterday, Harrison losing his wicket in Buckley's first over. Dolphin hit three 4's, and lost his wicket to Buckley. Tattersall added seven singles to his overnight score before being completely beaten by Buxton. Hardisty did not come out to bat, and the innings closed for 393.

Cheshire again had an unsuccessful opening, losing Fallows and W. Jones for 6 runs. Williams and MacLaren became partners, the latter wrenching his right thigh in running across, and calling for a runner. The score was carried to 24 when Williams was clean bowled, MacLaren following at 34 before Richardson. He had made some nice strokes, contributing 19. J. L. Jones joined Rigby, and the 50 went up in an hour. At 54 Harrison substituted Foster, both going on at the other end for Richardson. Rigby and Jones latched well together, and were the not outs at the lunch interval.

After lunch Jones gave Richardson an easy catch, and Foster sent one of Buxton's balls to the boundary fully fifty yards. Foster bowled Rigby with a no-ball, the batsman also narrowly missing being run out next ball.

Yorkshire won by an innings and 261 runs.
