

Scottish Cricket War Dead

Compiled by Charlie Clark

This is a compilation of war memorials at Scottish cricket clubs, Rolls of honour or known war dead.

I have an interest in war memorials and war graves. I hope everyone finds this interesting and informative. Where possible I have tried to locate a picture. In the first World War pictures were commonplace for officers but not so for the lesser ranks.

I have made use of the Cricket Scotland, Cricket Archive, War Grave websites, and various cricket books to locate the information required. Acknowledgements are below and permission has been sort where possible.
