

Nairn Compiled by Charlie Clark

Amongst those who made the supreme sacrifice are to be found the following:-

Mr W. Whitelaw	Mr David Sinclair.
Mr R. Whitelaw	Mr R. Reid.
Mr G. Whitelaw	Mr W. Reid.
Mr J. Duncan	Mr A. Macdonald

R. I. P

"Their Name liveth for evermore"

Season 1919.
The Annual General Business
Meeting held in Cudens Hotel on the 25th March 1919.

THE MEETING.
Mr Warren, who acted as Chairman, spoke at some length as to the importance of the revival of cricket in Nairn; the game had been discontinued since the outbreak of war in 1914, considering Mr Warren said that those who had fallen must be remembered & asked the meeting to stand for a minute & thus honour those who made the supreme sacrifice, they included:-

MR. W. WHITELAW.	MR DAVID SINCLAIR.
MR R. WHITELAW.	MR. R. REID.
MR. G. WHITELAW.	MR. W. REID.
MR. J. DUNCAN	MR A MACDONALD

The Whitelaw Family

Geoffrey

Family

Robert

James Duncan

Archibald E MacDonald

David Sinclair

Leslie Sutherland

Name	Birth	Died	Regiment
James Duncan	1894	1917	Seaforth Highlanders
Archibald Ewan MacDonald	1887	1918	Canadian Army Veterinary Corp
Alistair Reid	1893	1918	Scots Guards
Walker James Reid	1896	1918	Cameronians (Scottish Rifles)
David Christie Sinclair	1889	1915	Manchester Regiment
Geoffrey Lacy Whitelaw	1898	1918	Household Battalion	Same Family
Robert Hilary Lockhart Whitelaw	1895	1917	Household Battalion
William Alexander Whitelaw	1891	1919	Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders
Leslie Sutherland	1914	1940	Royal Navy	