

MINOR COUNTIES

WHO'S WHO

1968

Published by: J. F. Burrell, 35 Metford Road, Bristol 6.

---

Since the last issue of this Who's Who, the death has occurred of the greatest Minor County player of all time, S. F. Barnes. Although this Who's Who deals with the players of the present it would be discourteous not to mention this great player. The death has also occurred, on March 5th, of another famous Minor County player, W. B. Franklin. His long career with Buckinghamshire lasted from 1911 to 1946 and he kept wicket for the Gentlemen against the Players in seasons 1926/7/8.

This issue sees the severance of links with pre-war days in the non-appearance of R. G. Simons of Hertfordshire and G. C. Perkins of Suffolk. Both have performed for many years in the highest traditions of Minor County cricket. Players with First class experience continue to come into Minor County cricket and perhaps the most distinguished addition for this season is S. Ramadhin who has joined Lincolnshire and who will no doubt prove an able successor to John Lawrence and a good support to the pace of McVicker and Evans.
