

MINOR COUNTIES

WHO'S WHO

1969

Published by: J. F. Burrell, 35 Metford Road, Bristol 6.

This is the tenth edition of this Who's Who and we have thus reached a double figure score. A number of players have appeared in all ten editions and may they appear in many more. This edition sees many news names and some departures. Among the latter perhaps the most notable is Norman McVicker who leaves Lincolnshire to try his luck with Warwickshire on a 3 year special registration. All followers of Minor County cricket will wish him well. Also missing are K. SArch, a Shropshire stalwart ever since the county joined the championship, D. W. Hardy a notable Durham and Minor Counties XI captain and D.D. Gardner the Wiltshire opening batsman. Finally we must record the retirement of H.W. Stephenson from Dorset after a long and distinguished career in competitive cricket.

Many changes have taken place in Minor County cricket during the ten years of this Who's Who. Notable Sunday play and the Gillette Club and what more appropriate in our tenth year for a Minor County to beat a First Class county for the first time. In many cases the Gillette Cup has led to counties strengthening their sides by special registrations and in the main the average Minor County side is stronger than ten years ago. Norfolk, perhaps, provide an interesting example of this in relying as they have for so long on local talent to a considerable extent, but have strengthened their side by specially registering three players with first class experience.
